CONDITIONS OF SALE

1 The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2 The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance, and therefore, in his judgment, likely to affect the sale injuriously.

3 The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit, or the whole of the purchase money, if required, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

4 The lots to be taken away at the buyers' expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, unless otherwise specified by the auctioneer or managers previous to or at the time of sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the Auctioneer, on or before delivery; in default of which the undersigned will not hold himself responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

5 The undersigned will not hold himself responsible for the correctness of the description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in, any lot, and make no warranty whatever.

6 To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchasers, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

7 Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all lots unclaimed within one day from the conclusion of sale (unless otherwise specified as above) shall be re-sold by public or private sale without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale, if he thinks fit.

Auctioneer.

FIRST SESSION

CATALOGUE

1 Letter from Consul Larkin to Vice Consul Leidesdorff, dated April 13, 1846, notifying the vice consul that there was a council of war then in session "to see what good can be done for the country." This is by far the most important of Consul Larkin's letters, and its absence from Larkin's collection marred a very important chapter in Mr. Bancroft's History of California. This letter contains other important historical data.

2 Letter From Commander Montgomery to Vice Consul Leidesdorff informing the consul that he, Montgomery, would on the next morning land a body of men under arms and hoist the American flag, read Admiral Sloat's proclamation, and confer the proper authority upon the Alcalde. Yerba Buena, July 8, 1846. This is certainly the first document relating to the history of this city under the government of the United States.

3 Letter of Lieut. J. W. Rever to "Mr. Kern or other officer of the U. S., in command at New Helvetia." This letter bears the same relation to Sacramento that the communication of Commander Montgomery does to San Francisco, and is of equal importance historically. The above letters are specimens of more than 500 documents of similar character in possession of the writer, and which he intends to offer for sale in this market, when properly summarized and catalogued. This letter is dated Sonoma, July 9, 1846.

It will be unnecessary to remind the intelligent collector of the importance of the foregoing three items. These letters are not in the Bancroft Library, the Library of Congress, nor in any of the Departmental Libraries in Washington. They are unique, and are historical units of the first importance. Their reproduction will be limited to 100 copies of each letter, and it is the intention of the owner of the originals to print no more until this hundred is disposed of to bona fide collectors. A list of the purchasers will be kept, and no purchaser can have more than one copy of each letter.

The foregoing collection of Books, Maps, Pictures and Prints pertaining to San Francisco and other localities in California and the Pacific Coast, were mostly printed in San Francisco, and are in the original cloth bindings. The collection is confidently offered to San Francisco collectors, with the view of creating a taste for collecting books relating to California, written by Californians, printed in California, and sold in California in open market. The list of California pamphlets offered to the public in this sale is an experiment, and if favorably received, many others will be offered in like manner druing the season. Their importance as historical documents need not be dwelt upon.—P. P. Healy, San Francisco, California.

Extract from the Will of Edmond de Goncourt:

(Trans.)

"My wish is that my Drawings, my Prints, my Curiosities, my Books—in a word these things of art which have been the joy of my life—shall not be consigned to the cold tomb of a museum, and subjected to the stupid glance of the careless passer-by; but I require that they shall all be dispersed under the hammer of the Auctioneer, so that the pleasure which the acquiring of each one of them has given me shall be given again, in each case, to some inheritor of my own tastes."
